On April 14, 2016, iRobot Corporation (the “Company”) delivered the letter below to its employees regarding the Company’s 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and the proxy contest initiated by Red Mountain Capital.

iRoboteers,

This morning, we issued another press release about our latest letter to shareholders in connection with the 2016 Annual Meeting. The letter seeks to set the record straight about Red Mountain Capital, explaining why Red Mountain Capital is not suited to serve on your Board and why shareholders should support the iRobot nominees – Mohamad Ali and Michael Bell. We encourage you to read the letter by accessing this link.

For all our employee shareholders, we want to remind you that regardless of the number of shares you own, it is important that you vote to support our Board’s nominees on the WHITE proxy card. If you have not yet voted, please vote today!

As always, thanks to all for your ongoing focus and continued commitment to iRobot.

-Colin

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements made in this communication that are not based on historical information are forward-looking statements which are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements may be identified with words like “believe,” “may,” “could,” “would,” “might,” “should,” “expect,” “intend,” “plan,” “target,” “anticipate” and “continue,” the negative of these words, other terms of similar meaning or the use of future dates. This communication contains express or implied forward-looking statements relating to, among other things, iRobot’s expectations regarding future financial performance, future operating performance and growth, our strategic actions to continue revenue growth, demand for our robots, strategic investments to diversify Home revenue, the impact of the divestiture of our Defense & Security business, the impact of our strategic actions to enhance stockholder value, and anticipated revenue. These statements are neither promises nor guarantees, but are subject to a variety of risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control, which could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated in these forward-looking statements. In particular, the risks and uncertainties include, among other things: our ability to operate in an emerging market, the financial strength of our customers and retailers, our ability to enhance stockholder value through our strategic actions, including the sale of our Defense & Security business, general economic conditions, market acceptance of our products, and competition. Existing and prospective investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof. iRobot undertakes no obligation to update or revise the information contained in this communication, whether as a result of new information, future events or circumstances or otherwise. For additional disclosure regarding these and other risks faced by iRobot, see the disclosure contained in our public filings with the SEC.
